RELIGION. MORALS AND PHILOSOPHY Rev. C. C. BROWN, Editor.

NOTHING IS LOST. Nothing is lost; the drop of dew Which trembles on the leaf or flower Is but exhaled to fall anew In Summer's thunder shower; Perchance to shine within the bow That fromts the sun at fall of day;

Perchance to sparkle in the flow

Of fountains far away: Nothing is lost; the tiniest seed By wild birds borne or breezes blown Finds something suited to its need -Wherein 'tis sown and grown. The language of some household song,
The perfume of some cherished flower,
Though gone from outward sense, belong
To memory's after hour.

So with our words : or barsh, or kind, Ditered, they are not all forgot; They have their influence on the mind,
